

Sheet Pan Chicken Shawarma

Yield: 4-5 servings

Prep Time: 20 minutes

Cook Time: 30 minutes

Ingredients:

Chicken

2-4 chicken thighs, depending on your group size and hunger, fat trimmed and sliced into thin strips

¼ red onion, thinly sliced

¼ cup greek yogurt, full fat if possible

½ lemon, juiced

1 ½ tbsp olive oil

1 tsp coriander

½ tbsp cumin

½ teaspoon salt

½ teaspoon smoked paprika

¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper

¼ teaspoon dried thyme

¼ tsp turmeric

¼ teaspoon cinnamon

¼ teaspoon black pepper

⅛ teaspoon cloves

⅛ teaspoon nutmeg, or allspice

Other / Toppings

Pitas (1 per group member)

½ cucumber, diced

1 tomato, diced

Garlic yogurt sauce

Directions:

1. In a large bowl, whisk together the greek yogurt, lemon juice, olive oil, and all the spices until well combined.
2. Add the sliced chicken and toss to coat thoroughly using gloved hands or a rubber spatula. Cover and refrigerate for 20-30 minutes, or up to overnight for best flavor.
3. In the meantime, preheat the oven to 425 degrees, line a baking sheet with aluminum foil, and spray the aluminum foil with nonstick cooking spray. Dice the tomato, cucumber, and assemble the garlic yogurt sauce.
4. Spread the marinated chicken evenly across the baking pan. Scatter the sliced red onions over the top of the chicken just before baking.
5. Bake for 15 minutes. Remove the pan, carefully drain any excess liquid from the pan to promote better browning.
6. Switch the oven to broil, adjust the rack to the top position, and cook for an additional 3-5 minutes, or until the edges are golden and slightly crisp. Monitor closely to prevent burning.
7. During the last 3-5 minutes, just before the chicken has finished baking, heat the pitas in a microwave to soften them and warm them. Serve chicken in pitas, topped with your choice of cucumber, tomato, and garlic yogurt sauce.
